

Legal Docs Draft — for review by [Intern]

You're drafting the Privacy Policy and Terms & Conditions for the Legal Boutique Advisers website (legalboutiqueadvisers.com). The site currently runs on placeholder text in these two sections. Your job: replace the placeholders below with firm-approved, legally sound copy in English (a Spanish and French version will be done later).

Return the finished documents in this same structure — our dev team maps sections 1:1 into the page, so keep every heading.

Facts you must reflect (from the live site)

- Firm: Legal Boutique Advisers. Address: Calle Nuestra Señora de Gracia, 26, bajo, 29601 Marbella, Spain. Tel: +34 952 777 991 · +34 663 109 014. Email: info@legalboutiqueadvisers.com.
 - Data collected via the contact form ("Make a private enquiry" / `/inquiry`): full name, email address, phone (optional), country of residence (optional), message (optional), and a selected area of interest. Submitting requires an explicit "I have read and accept the Privacy Policy" consent checkbox.
 - What happens to it: enquiries are stored (Firestore database) with a timestamp, read by partners only, used solely to respond; never shared, never sold, never added to mailing lists.
 - Cookies/analytics: the site sets no cookies and runs no analytics.
 - Jurisdiction: the firm operates in Spain (Marbella). GDPR applies to EU residents.
 - Engagement rule: submitting an enquiry does not create a lawyer–client relationship (a relationship starts only on written acceptance of an engagement).

Document 1 — Privacy Policy

Intro (2 short paragraphs)

PLACEHOLDER — draft an intro: who the policy covers, that it explains how the site collects and uses personal data, and a sentence noting the firm may update it and the "last updated" date reflects the current version.

1. Who we are

PLACEHOLDER — firm identity, registered name, address (Marbella), email. Add any registration/bar-membership numbers if the firm wants them public.

2. Information we collect

PLACEHOLDER — list the form fields actually collected (name, email, phone (optional), country (optional), area of interest, message), state that the site uses no cookies, and that personal data is never sold or rented.

3. How we use your information

PLACEHOLDER — respond to enquiries only; no mailing lists without separate consent; enquiries read by partners only.

4. Legal basis

PLACEHOLDER — consent (explicit checkbox on the form) + legitimate interest in responding to prospective-client enquiries. Confirm with the firm's counsel which additional bases (e.g. contract performance) apply.

5. Retention

PLACEHOLDER — how long enquiries are kept (currently: deleted once the enquiry and any resulting engagement are closed — confirm a concrete period with the firm, e.g. 12/24 months).

6. Your rights

PLACEHOLDER — GDPR rights: access, rectification, erasure, restriction, portability, objection; email to exercise them; right to lodge a complaint with the Spanish DPA (AEPD — add contact details).

7. Data sharing / processors

PLACEHOLDER — hosting/backend processors (Google Cloud / Firebase) — confirm whether the firm wants this named, and add any other processors.

8. Changes to this policy

PLACEHOLDER — the "Last updated" date reflects the current version.

Document 2 — Terms & Conditions

Page: </terms> · Footer link: "Terms & Conditions" Meta title (auto-generated): "Terms & Conditions — Legal Boutique Advisers"

Intro (2 short paragraphs)

PLACEHOLDER — what these terms govern (use of the website, not the firm's legal services), and that using the site implies acceptance.

1. Nature of the content

PLACEHOLDER — site content is general information, not legal/tax/investment advice; no lawyer–client relationship from browsing.

2. Enquiries

PLACEHOLDER — submitting an enquiry creates no engagement; a relationship forms only upon written acceptance by the firm.

3. Intellectual property

PLACEHOLDER — site content/design/branding owned by the firm; no reproduction without written consent.

4. Third-party links

PLACEHOLDER — external links (e.g. social media pages, partner sites) — the firm is not responsible for their content or privacy practices.

5. Limitation of liability

PLACEHOLDER — review what the firm wants to exclude/limit; must be drafted to comply with Spanish consumer law.

6. Governing law & jurisdiction

PLACEHOLDER — Spanish law; courts of Marbella. Confirm this matches the firm's preference.

7. Contact

PLACEHOLDER — email for questions about the terms.

Before you return it

- ☐ All placeholders replaced; nothing marked "PLACEHOLDER" left in.
- ☐ Facts above match the live site (form fields, no cookies, contact details).
- ☐ Read by the firm / its counsel before we put it live.
